

Cookbook Committee Meeting Minutes

1. Date of meeting/time meeting started: 10:00, Thursday, March 10, 2011
2. Members/guests present: Cathy Yates, Carol Howell, Linda Payne, Betty Avery, Lonnie Jones
3. Old Business:
  - a. A historical cookbook to be printed and sold by the Museum of Ashe County History.
  - b. This could be sold at a price of $15.00 to $20.00 each and would cost roughly $8-10.00 to print or slightly more.
4. New Business:
  - a. We have 180 plus recipes; we need to have between 500-700 recipes. This need to be collected by approximately June 15, 2011.
  - b. We will ask members to submit recipes, collect recipes from people related to restaurants of the past in the county along with pictures of those places to be used as section dividers.
  - c. A person will go to the radio and spend time with Jan Caddell on the Happy Times Show to publicize this. Local homemaker clubs will be asked to donate recipes.
  - d. The original idea included a local artist painting a unique picture to go on the cover of the book. We will be talking to that person about a completion date on that.
  - e. A date for the next meeting will be set at the board meeting on March 28, 2011.
5. Other items discussed:
  - a. Cathy Yates took the material from Morris Cookbooks to get familiar with their planning format.
  - b. She will be asking others on the committee to help on this; volunteers naturally would be accepted.
6. Next scheduled meeting date:
7. Time meeting adjourned: 11:15
8. Name of person submitting minutes: Lonnie Jones
